

BARROWS' FRIENDS Captain of 30th Infantry Charged With Commissary Frauds IN PURSUIT OF INSURGENT BANDS Philippine Priests Oppose the Return of Archbishop Chapelle.

AGUINALDO'S QUIET LIFE

MANILA, May 11.—The trial of Captain Frederick J. Barrows of the 30th United States Infantry, quartermaster of the department of southern Luzon, on charges connected with the commissary scandals, was finished today. The verdict has not yet been announced.

The department of southern Luzon is sending various expeditions in pursuit of the remaining Filipino bands. It is expected that the island of Mindoro will be occupied in the near future. Many fugitive Tagalos and a quantity of arms are reported to be in the hands of the insurgents.

The United States Philippine commission is overrunning with applications for civil positions, and the officers of the new provinces are submitting many questions to the commission. The routine business of the commission is heavy. The provincial officers have encountered no serious difficulties.

A party of insurgents partly burned the bridge near Lucban, Tayabas province, Thursday night, but were driven back without loss on either side.

Chapelle Not Mentioned.

A petition is on its way to the pope, signed practically by all the native priests against the return here of Archbishop Chapelle as administrator and favoring the return of Archbishop Nozales, who, although in Rome, is still archbishop of Manila, his resignation never having been accepted.

Opposition to Archbishop Chapelle is chiefly on account of his expressed intention to encourage the establishment of American priests in the Philippines. The petition claims an American military order prohibiting the placing of ecclesiastics over people who are opposed to them. There is no probability of Archbishop Chapelle's return, or his transmission from the archbishopric of New Orleans.

The petition indicates a change of sentiment on the part of the ownership of Manila. The question is whether the people will approve of it. The friar issue is dwindling. If the friars return to the Philippines, where they are wanted, it is believed this will not concern the government, unless unlawful acts are committed.

The question of the ownership of the friars and their settlement through suits brought by the complaining towns rather than on the government's initiative.

Aguinaldo's life is quiet. He seldom goes out and is always accompanied by a guard, as there is some apprehension of his assassination by friends of Gen. Luna or personal enemies.

THE OHIO GOVERNORSHIP.

Revival of Rumor That Taft Will Be Nominated.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 11.—Ohio papers this morning are full of the story of a combination of republican leaders on Judge Taft for governor, instead of Nash. The rumor was printed in the 8th on Thursday. The governor and Gen. Dick out of the state administrative statements are hard to get in regard to the matter. Senator Foraker was interviewed at Cincinnati last night. He said he knew nothing about it, but ventured the prediction that Gov. Nash would be nominated for a second term.

Gov. Co. made no prediction. He is known to believe that Nash cannot be elected.

Others are pointing into the governor's office, asking him for information as to the situation. On his arrival home there will be a wagon load of such communications. The governor is expected to be in the office by the time that he will permit his judgment to be set aside even for that of Hanna, Dick, Foraker and Cox. It is therefore generally expected here that Nash will lead the ticket again for a second term.

COL. HERRICK NOT A CANDIDATE.

He Denies Rumors Regarding Candidacy for Governor.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 11.—The attention of Col. Myron C. Herrick was today called to newspaper articles to the effect that a movement is being inaugurated with a view to bringing about his nomination for governor at the republican state convention.

"I believe," said Col. Herrick, "that Governor Nash has the confidence and respect of the republican party in Ohio, as well as elsewhere. His administration has proved most successful, and he is undoubtedly entitled to renomination. Indeed, I have no doubt that he will be renominated and re-elected. I know nothing of the plan to call a convention before the next election, but I am sure that a movement is being inaugurated with a view to bringing about his nomination for governor at the republican state convention."

The freight car on the Georgetown and Tenleytown railroad is to be restored, and will commence operation for a thirty days' trial May 20. The return of the car is made at the request of a special committee from the Georgetown Citizens' Association. If the car proves to be self-supporting the promise is that it will continue to be operated. A separate account will be kept. The same rates will be charged as on the old system, but only one car, it is said, will be run a day during Georgetown immediately after the 12:30 Rockville car, and proceeding straight through to Rockville.

Mr. Charles H. Trunell, who has a number of relatives interested in the old Presbyterian cemetery, on 33d, 34th, Q and R streets, filed a complaint against less than sixty or seventy graves which have been ruthlessly broken open and the brick which were built carried away by private individuals for their own use. Extensive records of the cemetery prior to 1886 have been destroyed, the old tombs were in nearly all cases the only means of identification of the remains. It is now that they have been torn down no trace can be found of the identity of the interred.

A reception was tendered Rev. F. L. Flagg, pastor of Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, Wednesday evening, in token of the pleasure of the congregation at his return to the church for another year. Addresses of welcome were made by Clement Beckett, pastor of the congregation at his return, and which Mr. Flagg responded. After the reception refreshments were served.

Mr. Tabor M. P. Church, located at 32d and 33d streets, was dedicated June 20, 1874, and on that occasion Rev. Joseph A. Wiegand was the pastor, serving for some years. After leaving the church, Mr. Church was married and moved to New York. He will conduct both the morning and evening services at the church. A hearty welcome will be extended him by the members of the congregation.

GEN. BRECKINRIDGE'S TRIP. Will Make an Extended Inspection in the Philippines. Secretary Root has approved a plan by which Brigadier Gen. Breckinridge, inspec- tor general of the United States army, will proceed to the Philippines for an extended trip of inspection. The start will be made about June 20 on the transport Ingersoll, leav- ing New York by the Suez route. Gen. Breckinridge's arrival in the Philippines is being timed so as to meet Gen. Chaffee soon after his return from China, and as the lat- ter was at one time an inspector general, he will probably assist in planning the tour of the islands. The trip will be quite thorough, as Gen. Breckinridge will not re- turn to this country before next December. There are a large number of military posts scattered through the Philippines, and it is understood to be the idea to get a thorough knowledge of their condition and needs, not only for the present, but with reference to the transition stage from military to civil rule, which is now being gradually brought about.
